

Call for Submissions to the Summer School for Doctoral Students

Dear doctoral students of the EARLI SIG 8,

Following an established SIG tradition, the International Conference on Motivation (ICM) 2024 will be preceded by the Summer School for doctoral students interested in topics related to motivation and emotion from August 26th to August 27th 2024. The Summer School offers you the opportunity to present and discuss your own projects in the field of motivation and emotion, as well as other relevant topics. The focus is on mutual exchange, as well as cooperation and further development of knowledge and research related to your projects. The workshops during the Summer School are supervised by highly competent and internationally renowned scientists. Great emphasis will be placed on facilitating this exchange of knowledge in different settings, ensuring time and space for discussion in addition to workshops and social activities. The Summer School will be held at Schloss Ueberstorf, offering historic charm, tranquil surroundings, versatile spaces, and personalized service, making it an ideal venue for organizing our Summer School. The combination of academic rigor and natural beauty creates an environment that fosters learning, collaboration, and personal growth, making it an unforgettable and enriching experience for all participants.

Submission Guidelines and Procedure

All proposals must be in English language and submitted electronically through the EARLI submission system: <https://www.earli-eapril.org/>. Please keep in mind that all participants need a valid EARLI account to submit a contribution. The submission system will be open from January 31st 2024 until March 31st 2024. Decision of acceptance will be sent by April 30th 2024. Please note that places are limited for up to max. 25 doctoral students.

Each individual submission must have:

- A title of up to 100 characters (including spaces)
- An abstract of 100-250 words
- Description of the whole dissertation project (100-200 words)
- An extended summary of 500-1.000 words (including theoretical background, research questions and hypotheses, research design and method, significance for theory, policy, and practice, references)
- Three questions you would like to discuss at the Summer School

Please follow the Summer School's webpage for further updates. More information about the Summer School will be announced soon. For any questions regarding the Summer School or the submission, please contact the organization team at icm2024.edu@unibe.ch.

We are looking forward to two eventful days!
